BROOKS. In loving remembrance of our dear son, father and brother, CHARLIE A. BROOKS, who was killed two years ago to-day, March 7, 1916.

If we could have seen him at the fast, And held his gentle hand, And heard the last sigh from his beart We would not feel so sad.

BY THE FAMILY.

CARTER. In sad but loving remembrance our dear mother, ELLEN B. CARTER, who departed this life sixteen years ago today March 7, 1902. As time passes we miss her more,
Our sorrows no one can tell;
'Twas God alone that took her away,
The one we loved so well.
BY HER DAUGHTERS, HELEN AND MARGARITE CARTER.

We often wonder if you know How we long to see you,

If we had seen you at the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your little heart,
We would not feel so bad.
BY HIS DEVOTED FATHER, MOTHER AND LITTLE SISTER.

FRAIN. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, MARIA FRAIN, who departed this life ten years ago today, March 7, 1808. Oh, mother, thy gentle voice is hushed, Thy warm true heart is still.

We shall never cease to love you,
Though your form be in the dust,
And some day we hope to meet you;
To this end in God we trust.
BY HER LOVING DAUGHTERS, KATE AND LILLIE.

FRAIN. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, DAVIS M. FRAIN, who departed this life twelve years ago today, March 7, 1906. The month of March once more is here, To us the saddest of the year, Recause at took from us away Our father dear twelve years ago today. Sleep on, dear father, sweet be thy rest, We needed thee, but God knew best, God's will be done, He doeth well, But how we need thee no tongue can tell. BY HIS DAUGHTERS, KATE AND LILLIE,

FROST. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, SARA V. FROST, who entered into rest three years ago today, March 7, 1915. What peaceful hours we then enjoyed,
How sweet her memory still,
But now we feel an aching void
The world can never fill,
BY HER SONS AND DAUGHTERS.

GARNETT. In sad but loving remembrance our beloved son, GEORGE W. GARNETT, wi passed away one year ago today. How sadly we count the bours That measured the sorrowfur year Since we laid in a mantle of flowers Our son and loved one so dear.

And though the circle is broken
And parting has filled us with pain,
We hold as a glorious token
The bright hope of meeting again.
BY HIS MOTHER DEAR AND FATHER. GARNETT. In loving remembrance of our dea brother, GEORGE W. GARNETT, who passes brother, GEURGE W. GARNELL, was away on: year ago today, March 7, 1917 Peaceful be thy rest, dear brother; It is sweet to breathe thy name; In life we loved thee dearly, In death we do the same.

MARY.

GARNETT. In sweet and loving remembrance of our deatly beloved brother, GEORGE W. GARNETT, who departed this life one year ago today, March 7, 1917.

today, March 1, 1911.

His face we never can forget,
His voice in our dreams we hear,
Its sweet tones linger with us still.
The memory of our brother is to us dearer
Than aught else on earth can ever be,
BY HIS DEVOTED SISTERS, ALICE AND RÜTH.

GARNETT. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear brother, GEORGE W. GARNETT, who left us one year ago today, March 7, 1917.

We miss thee from our home, dear, We miss thee from thy place; A shadow o'er our life is cast, We miss the sunshine of thy face,

We miss thy kind and willing hand, Thy fond and earnest care; Our home is dark without thee, We miss thee everywhere. His well remembered footsteps I am listening for in vain;
My eyes grow dim with watching, and my heart is sad with pain.
Can I help but feel so lonely when his voice I do not hear? For no words were ever sweeter than the words he used to say. GRACIE. •

INSCOE. In sad but loving remembrance of our darling mother. ANNIE C. INSCOE (nee Mann), who departed this life six years ago today, March 7, 1912. Loved in life, in death remembered. BY HER DEVOTED DAUGHTER ANGELLIS.
